FINANCE SECRETARIAT

Admissibility of Travelling Allowance in respect of journeys performed by Government servants on account of attending the prescribed departmental examinations.

OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM

N : FD 8 SRS 79 BANGALORE DATED 7TH FEBRUARY 1979

According to Rule 546 of K. C. S. Rs., a Government servant is entitled to Travelling Allowance twice and not more than twice, for journeys to and for, consequent on attendance at an obligatory departmental examination or the local service examination or an examination necessary for obtaining promotion. Under the exception below the said rule a Government servant appearing for SAS examination or Treasury Head Accountant's examination held only at Bangalore is entitled to Travelling Allowance for the first three times, irrespective of whether he appears for the whole examination or particular part or parts comprised therein.

(2) A point of doubt has been raised as to whether the provisions of the aforesaid Exception are applicable to other examinations like Accounts Higher, P.W.D. Higher Parts I and II and Kannada Language examination.

(3) The following clarifications are issued for the information and guidance of all concerned :—

(a) Where any examination prescribed for a post or a category of posts under the Karnataka Civil Services (Service and Kannada Language Examinations) Rules 1974 consists of parts and a Government servant holding the post is required to pass the examination as a whole, he is entitled to Travelling Allowance twice for journeys to and from the place of examination for attending the examination, irrespective of whether he appears for the whole examination or a particular part or parts compraised therein.

(b) Where any examination is prescribed for a post or a category of posts under K.C.S. (Service and Kannada Language Examinations) Rules, 74 consists of parts and a Government servant holding the post is required to pass particular part or parts of the examination, he is entitled to and Travelling Allowance twice for journeys to and from the place of examination for attending the part or parts of the examnation. If any other part or parts of the same examination is prescribed for promotion to higher posts in the service to which he belongs, he is entitled to Travelling Allowance twice for journeys to and from the place of examination for attending the part or parts of the examination.
